

Get Bushfire Resilient – an interactive webinar series for residents living in rural areas and on the urban fringe of Nillumbik. What have previous disasters taught us? Learn from industry experts in five 90-minute sessions featuring representatives from CSIRO, the insurance industry, CFA, Nillumbik Shire Council, Cardinia Shire Council, Victorian Building Authority, and the University of Melbourne.

- Webinar 1 How houses are destroyed by bushfire
7.30pm Tuesday 27 October, Justin Leonard, CSIRO

- Webinar 2 How to harden an existing house
7.30pm Thursday 5 November, Justin Leonard, CSIRO

- Webinar 3 Getting your insurance right - panel of insurance representatives 7.30pm Tuesday 10 November
Denis Nelthorpe, Consumer Lawyer Helda Sidaoui, Suncorp
Clare Cordingley, Insurance Council Georgina Dircks, IAG

- Webinar 4 Understanding rebuilding - panel of planning and recovery representatives
7.30pm Thursday 19 November
Rosa Zouzoulas & Renae Ahern, Nillumbik Shire Council
Julie Bowyer, Cardinia Shire Council John Ginivan, Strategic Planner
Mark Holland, CFA Kevin Hazell, Bushfire Planning
Peter Collina, Victorian Building Authority

- Webinar 5 Make better decisions about bushfire risk in our changing climate
7.30pm Thursday 26 November
Kevin Tolhurst AM, University of Melbourne Michael Vermeulen, CFA

To register click register.bushfireresilience.org.au/. Alternatively, you can register your interest by calling Louise on 9438 3194 or email l.danson@valleyfinancial.com.au

Broadcast live via the internet you'll have the chance to submit questions before sessions or ask them live during our Q&A. If you register but are unable to attend we'll send you a link to the recording afterwards.

Link to information about Webinar Chair, Presenters and Panel Members

With support from

Bushfire Resilience Inc.